INFORMATION CONCERNING PROXY

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the Company's Board of Directors. The giving of a proxy does not preclude the right to vote in person should any shareholder giving the proxy so desire. Shareholders have an unconditional right to revoke their proxy at any time prior to the exercise thereof, either in person at the Annual Meeting or by filing with the Company's Secretary at the Company's headquarters a written revocation or duly executed proxy bearing a later date; however, no such revocation will be effective until written notice of the revocation is received by the Company at or prior to the Annual Meeting.

The cost of preparing, assembling and mailing this Proxy Statement, the Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders and the enclosed proxy is to be borne by the Company. In addition to the use of mail, employees of the Company may solicit proxies personally and by telephone and telegraph. They will receive no compensation therefore in addition to their regular salaries. The Company may request banks, brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward copies of the proxy material to their principals and to request authority for the execution of proxies. The Company may reimburse such persons for their expenses in so doing.

PURPOSES OF THE MEETING

At the Annual Meeting, the Company's shareholders will consider and vote upon the following matters:

- (1) To elect one member to the Company's Board of Directors to hold office until the 1999 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and to elect three members to the Company's Board of Directors to hold office until the 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareholders or until their successors are duly elected and qualified, one of whom will be elected by the holders of Common Stock and three of whom will be elected by the holders of Class B Common Stock;
- (2) To consider and act upon a proposal to ratify an amendment to the Company's Amended and Restated 1996 Qualified Employee Stock Purchase Plan;
- (3) To ratify the reappointment of Arthur Andersen LLP as the Company's independent certified public accountants for the year ended December 31, 1998; and
- (4) To transact such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting and any adjournments or postponements thereof.

Unless contrary instructions are indicated on the enclosed proxy, all shares represented by valid proxies received pursuant to this solicitation (and which have not been revoked in accordance with the procedures set forth above) will be voted (a) for the election of the respective nominees for director named below to be elected by the holders of Common Stock and by the holders of Class B Common Stock (see "Outstanding Voting Securities and Voting Rights"), and (b) in favor of all other proposals described in the Notice of Annual Meeting or as may properly come before the Annual Meeting. In the event a shareholder specifies a different choice by means of the enclosed proxy, such shares will be voted in accordance with the specification so made.

OUTSTANDING VOTING SECURITIES AND VOTING RIGHTS

The Board of Directors has set the close of business on April 3, 1998, as the record date (the "Record Date") for determining shareholders of the Company entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the Record Date, there were 15,438,163 shares of Common Stock and 2,163,153 shares of Class B Common Stock issued and outstanding, all of which are entitled to be voted at the Annual Meeting. Holders of Common Stock are entitled to one vote per share on each matter that is submitted to shareholders for approval and vote as a separate class to elect 25 percent of the directors of the Company (rounded up to the next whole number), which presently equates to three directors. Holders of Class B Common Stock are entitled to ten votes per share on each matter that is submitted to shareholders for approval and vote as a separate class to elect 75 percent of the directors (rounded down to the next whole number), which presently equates to six directors. See "Election of Directors."

The attendance, in person or by proxy, of the holders of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock representing a majority of the combined voting power of the outstanding shares of such stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. For purposes of electing directors at the Annual Meeting, the nominees receiving the greatest number of votes of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, voting as separate classes shall be elected as directors.

The affirmative vote of a majority of votes of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock present, in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting and voting together as a single class, is required for the approval of (i) the proposal to ratify an amendment to the Company's Amended and Restated 1996 Qualified Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the "Stock Purchase Plan"); (ii) the proposal to ratify the reappointment of Arthur Andersen LLP as the Company's independent certified public accountants for the year ended December 31, 1998; and (iii) any other matter that may be submitted to a vote of the Company's shareholders.

As of the Record Date, the directors and executive officers of the Company and certain entities affiliated with such persons beneficially owned (i) Common Stock representing 7.2% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, (ii) Class B Common Stock representing 79.8% of the outstanding shares of Class B Common Stock and (iii) 53.4% of the aggregated combined votes of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock entitled to be cast at the Annual Meeting. Such persons and entities have informed the Company that they intend to vote all of their shares of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock in favor of all proposals set forth in the Proxy Statement.

Prior to the Annual Meeting, the Company will select one or more inspectors of election for the meeting. Such inspector(s) shall determine the number of shares of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum and the validity and effect of proxies, and shall receive, count and tabulate ballots and votes and determine the results thereof. Abstentions will be considered as shares present and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting and will be counted as votes cast at the Annual Meeting, but will not be counted as votes cast for or against any given matter. If less than a majority of the combined voting power of the outstanding shares of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock are represented at the Annual Meeting, a majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the Annual Meeting from time to time without further notice.

A broker or nominee holding shares registered in its name, or in the name of its nominee, which are beneficially owned by another person and for which it has not received instructions as to voting from the beneficial owner, may have discretion to vote the beneficial owner's shares with respect to the election of directors and other matters addressed at the Annual Meeting. Any such shares, which are not represented at the Annual Meeting either in person or by proxy, will not be considered to have cast votes on any matters addressed at the Annual Meeting.

BENEFICIAL SECURITY OWNERSHIP

The following table sets forth as of the Record Date, information with respect to the beneficial ownership of the Company's Common Stock and Class B Common Stock by (i) each shareholder known by the Company to beneficially own more than 5% of any class of the Company's voting securities, (ii) each director of the Company who owns any such shares, (iii) each executive officer named in the Summary Compensation Table in "Executive Compensation" and (iv) all directors and executive officers as a group. The table also sets forth, in its final column, the combined voting power of the voting securities on all matters presented to the shareholders for their approval except for the election of directors and for such separate class votes as are required by Florida law.

I.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

NOMINEES

The Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors shall consist of not less than three nor more than nine members, and shall be divided, as nearly as possible, into three equal divisions to serve in staggered terms of office of three years. Upon election at the Annual Meeting, Mr. Newman will serve for a term expiring at the 1999 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and Messrs. Fleeman, Moss and Novello will serve for a term expiring at the 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareholders or until their successors have been duly elected and qualified.

One director is to be elected at the Annual Meeting by the holders of Common Stock voting separately as a class. Mr. Novello has been nominated as the director to be elected by the holders of Common Stock and proxies will be voted for Mr. Novello absent contrary instructions. Mr. Novello was appointed as a Director of the Company in 1998.

Three directors are to be elected at the Annual Meeting by the holders of Class B Common Stock voting separately as a class. Mr. Fleeman, who has served as a director of the Company since 1977, Mr. Moss, who has served as a director of the Company since 1992, and Mr. Newman, who has served as a director of the Company since 1997, have been nominated as the directors to be elected by the holders of Class B Common Stock. Proxies will be voted for Messrs. Fleeman, Moss and Newman absent contrary instructions.

The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that any nominee will refuse to act or be unable to accept election; however, in the event that a nominee for a directorship is unable to accept election or if any other unforeseen contingencies should arise, it is intended that proxies will be voted for the remaining nominees, if any, and for such other person as may be designated by the Board of Directors, unless it is directed by a proxy to do otherwise.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

In March 1996, the Company renewed an employment agreement with Mr. Nahmad which expires January 31, 1999 and each January 31 automatically extends one year from its then expiration date unless the Compensation Committee shall have notified Mr. Nahmad to the contrary in writing prior to that date. Under the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Nahmad shall be employed as President and Chairman of the Board of the Company at an annual salary of not less than $480,000 and will be entitled to additional compensation pursuant to an Incentive Plan.

REVERSE SPLIT DOLLAR AGREEMENT

Messrs. Nahmad, Logan and Perez participate in reverse split dollar insurance programs which provide the Company limited interests in the insurance policies, including death benefits aggregating approximately $6.8 million plus any prepaid and unearned premiums. Under the insurance program, Messrs. Nahmad, Logan and Perez retain all incidents of ownership in excess of the Company's limited interests.

KEY EXECUTIVE DEFERRED COMPENSATION AGREEMENT

The Company entered into a Key Executive Deferred Compensation Agreement (the "Deferred Compensation Agreement") on January 31, 1983, with Mr. Nahmad that provides benefits to Mr. Nahmad or his family upon disability, death or retirement or upon change in control of the Company. The minimum monthly benefit payable under the plan is based on Mr. Nahmad's length of service to age 65 and is the lesser of one-twelfth (1/12) of 10% of (i) $727,000 plus certain amounts accrued for each year of service or (ii) his maximum annual salary prior to the event triggering payment of benefits. The estimated minimum annual benefits payable to Mr. Nahmad upon retirement at age 65 and the service to the Company that will have been completed by him are $72,700 and 33 years, respectively.

COMMITTEES' REPORT TO SHAREHOLDERS

The Company's executive compensation programs are based on three components: base salary, annual incentives and long-term compensation; each intended as an important piece of the overall compensation philosophy.

Base salary is used to attract and retain the Company's key executives and is calculated using comparisons with the Company's industry competitors and/or companies of similar market value. Salaries are reviewed by the Compensation Committee on an annual basis.

Annual incentives are a significant component of executive compensation, reflecting the Company's belief that management's contribution to long-term shareholder returns (via increasing stock prices and dividends) comes from maximizing earnings and the potential of the Company. The Company's Chief Executive Officer has an annual incentive opportunity based upon the increase in the earnings per share and stock price or, in earlier years, the pre-tax earnings of the Company. By its extensive reliance on this incentive compensation system, which has been employed by the Company for the Chief Executive Officer for more than seven years, the Company links a substantial portion of the Chief Executive Officer's annual pay directly to profits. As a result of this approach, the Company's Chief Executive Officer's total compensation is likely to vary from year to year more significantly than the pay of executives of many of the Company's competitors. This philosophy is essential to an entrepreneurial business such as the Company's business. Certain other executive officers and employees have their pay levels set primarily in relation to comparisons to similar executives of competitors, with additional annual incentives based on the attainment of specific objectives supporting the overall goals of the Company.

In 1997, the Company's pre-tax earnings from continuing operations increased to $29.8 million, up 66% from $18.0 million in 1996. The 1997 results include the operations of 12 businesses acquired during 1997 from the date of their acquisitions, which positioned the Company in additional states and substantially increased its market presence in its traditional markets. The execution of this strategy, with a combination of strong internal growth and acquisitions, has resulted in an earnings per share growth rate in excess of 30% for the period from 1991 to 1997 and has positioned the Company as the largest distributor of residential central air conditioning, heating and refrigeration equipment and related parts and supplies in the United States.

These successful efforts of the Company's management team were led by the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, Albert H. Nahmad. As discussed in more detail below, Mr. Nahmad and other key executives of the Company received a significant portion of their total compensation through incentive and other forms of long-term compensation.

In order to promote an increase in net worth of the Company, maximize the return to shareholders and effectively motivate senior management, the executive compensation philosophy of the Company has been to link compensation with Company performance. Therefore, Mr. Nahmad received 71% of his 1997 cash compensation from incentives. The Committee believes that this represents evidence of the strong and explicit link between executive compensation and the creation of long-term shareholder value.

In terms of long-term compensation, management incentives generally are provided to the Company's executives through annual grants of stock options and awards of restricted stock to retain and motivate executives to improve the Company's stock value. Stock options have been granted at an exercise price equal to the closing price of the Company's Common Stock or Class B Common Stock as reported by the New York Stock Exchange and the American Stock Exchange, respectively, on the day prior to the date of grant. Accordingly, grants of stock options will produce value only if there are increases in the underlying stock price. In 1997, Mr. Nahmad received options to acquire 200,000 shares of the Company's Class B Common Stock at an exercise price equal to the then market value of $22.75 per share. The Company provides no defined benefit pension plan or supplemental executive retirement plan but does provide a 401(k) plan for all of its employees employed for at least one year.

The Company provides certain executives awards of restricted stock that are designed to focus such executives on the long-term performance of the Company for the duration of their careers. Grants of restricted stock are subject to forfeiture until certain specified dates, death, disability or a change in control. These features result in the Company's ability to retain, throughout their entire careers, those individuals who are key to the creation of shareholder value. During 1997, there were four employees who were granted restricted stock. During 1997, Mr. Nahmad was granted 100,000 shares of restricted Class B Common Stock.

Decisions with regard to compensation of the Company's executives are made by the two-member Compensation Committee, which has meetings at least once a year and is called upon to meet more often when the need arises. Decisions with regard to awards of restricted stock and stock options for all employees of the Company are made by the two-member Stock Option Committee, which is called upon to meet when the need arises. Each member of the Committees is a non-employee director. The executive compensation practices of the Company are constantly re-evaluated to ensure their relevance, their support of the strategic goals of the Company and their contribution to the creation of long-term shareholder value.

The above Committees' Report to Shareholders of the Compensation and Stock Option Committees and the Company's Common Stock Price Performance Graph which follows shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating this Proxy Statement by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates this information by reference.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") generally disallows a public company's deduction for compensation to any one employee in excess of $1 million per year unless the compensation is pursuant to a plan approved by the public company's shareholders. In March 1996, the Compensation Committee renewed and amended the employment agreement between the Company and Mr. Nahmad. The terms of the employment agreement include a provision for an Incentive Plan for Mr. Nahmad, which was approved by the shareholders of the Company at the 1996 Annual Meeting. Such Incentive Plan is intended to comply with the provisions of Section 162(m).

WATSCO, INC. COMMON STOCK PRICE PERFORMANCE

The following graph compares the cumulative total shareholder return of Watsco, Inc. Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, based on their market prices and assuming reimbursement of dividends, with (i) the S & P Small-Cap 600 Index, (ii) the AMEX Market Index and (iii) a Peer Group Index.

The Peer Group Index is comprised of the following publicly traded companies: Hughes Supply, Inc., Noland Company and ACR Group, Inc. Two companies appearing in last year's Peer Group Index, SPX Corp. and International Comfort Products, Inc., are not included in the current Peer Group Index as these companies' operations primarily consist of manufacturing while the Company's manufacturing operations are no longer significant to its overall operations. The Company believes that this information demonstrates that the compensation earned by its executive officers compares consistently with increased shareholder value.

PROPOSAL TO RATIFY AN AMENDMENT TO THE COMPANY'S AMENDED AND RESTATED 1996 QUALIFIED EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN

In July 1996, the Board of Directors adopted, and in June 1997 the Company's Shareholders ratified, the 1996 Qualified Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the "Stock Purchase Plan"). The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors has adopted, and is submitting to the Shareholders for approval, an amendment to the Amended and Restated 1996 Qualified Employee Stock Purchase Plan. The Stock Purchase Plan has been restated and amended to increase the amount of shares of Common Stock of the Company reserved for issuance from 200,000 to 400,000 shares.

A general description of the basic features of the Stock Purchase Plan is presented below, but such description is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Stock Purchase Plan, which is available from the Company upon request.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The purpose of the Stock Purchase Plan is to encourage stock ownership in the Company by employees of the Company and those subsidiaries of the Company designated by the Compensation Committee as eligible to participate, thereby enhancing employee interest in the continued success and progress of the Company.

The Stock Purchase Plan permits employees to purchase stock of the Company at a favorable price and possibly with favorable tax consequences to the participants. All employees (including officers, other than Mr. Nahmad) of the Company or of those subsidiaries designated by the Compensation Committee who are regularly scheduled to work at least 20 hours per week and more than five months per year are eligible to participate in any of the purchase periods of the Stock Purchase Plan after completing 90 days of continuous employment. However, any participant who would own (as determined under the Code), immediately after the grant of an option, stock possessing 5% or more of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of the stock of the Company will not be granted an option under the Stock Purchase Plan. As of the Record Date, the Company had approximately 2,400 eligible participants.

The Stock Purchase Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee which is appointed by the Board of Directors and consists of persons who are Non-Employee Directors under Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act. The Stock Purchase Plan gives broad powers to the Compensation Committee to administer and interpret the Stock Purchase Plan.

Purchase periods begin on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 of each year. No later than 15 days before the commencement date of each purchase period, each participant must elect to have compensation withheld during the purchase period of a specific dollar amount of not less than $10 per payroll period for employees that are paid weekly, $20 for employees that are paid either bi-weekly or semi-monthly or a minimum $100 lump sum purchase. The percentage or amount designated may not be increased or decreased during a purchase period, but a participant can discontinue payroll deductions for the remainder of a purchase period and withdraw his or her funds entirely. As of the first day of the purchase period, a participant is granted an option to purchase that number of shares determined by dividing the total amount to be withheld by the purchase price described below. Based on the amount of salary withheld and lump sum payments made at the end of the purchase period, shares will be purchased for the account of each participant within five business days of the termination date of such purchase period (the "Purchase Date"). In no event, however, may a participant receive an option for shares, which would cause the participant to own 5% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of common stock of the Company. The purchase price to be paid by the participants will be the lower of the amount determined under Paragraphs A and B below:

A. 85% of the closing sales price of the Company's Common Stock as reported on the New York Stock Exchange as of the commencement date of the purchase period; or

B. 85% of the closing sales price of the Company's Common Stock as reported on the New York Stock Exchange as of the Purchase Date.

As required by tax law, no participant may receive an option under the Stock Purchase Plan for shares that have a fair market value in excess of $25,000 in one calendar year. No interest is paid by the Company on funds withheld, and such funds are used by the Company for general operating purposes. In general, the shares of Common Stock purchased by a participant may not be sold, transferred or disposed of by the participant other than by will or laws of descent and distribution or to immediate family members or trusts established for their benefit, for a period of 12 months after the purchase date for such shares.

The Compensation Committee may, from time to time, revise or amend the Stock Purchase Plan as the Compensation Committee may deem proper and in the best interest of the Company or as may be necessary to comply with Section 423 of the Code; provided, that no such revision or amendment may, without prior approval of the Company's shareholders, (i) increase the total number of shares for which options may be granted under the Stock Purchase Plan except as provided in the case of stock splits, consolidations, stock dividends or similar events, or (ii) to the extent otherwise required to comply with Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act or under Section 423 of the Code or other applicable law.

Under the Stock Purchase Plan, 400,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock are reserved for issuance during the duration of the Stock Purchase Plan.

The Board of Directors shall equitably adjust the number of shares remaining reserved for issuance, the number of shares of stock subject to outstanding options and the price per share of stock subject to an option in the event of certain increases or decreases in the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company effected as a result of stock splits or consolidations, stock dividends or other transactions in which the Company receives no consideration.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX EFFECTS

Shares purchased under the Stock Purchase Plan are intended to qualify for favorable tax treatment to the employees under Sections 421 and 423 of the Code. Employee contributions are made on an after-tax basis. A capital gain or capital loss on Common Stock purchased under the Stock Purchase Plan would not be realized until the participant would sell the shares of Common Stock. If a participant disposes of shares two years or more after the date of the beginning of the purchase period when the shares were acquired, and more than one year after the shares are purchased, the participant would recognize as ordinary income the lesser of: (i) the excess of the fair market value of the shares on the date of sale over the price paid or (ii) 15% of the fair market value of the shares at the beginning of the purchase period(s). Additionally, the participant would recognize a long-term capital gain or loss (within the meaning of the Code) equal to the difference between the amount realized from the sale of the shares and the basis (the basis would be the purchase price plus any amount taxed as ordinary compensation income). If a participant disposes of shares within two years of the date of the beginning of the purchase period when the shares were acquired, or within one year after the shares are purchased, the participant would recognize ordinary compensation income equal to the excess of the fair market value of the shares on the purchase date(s) over the price paid for the shares. Additionally, the participant would recognize a capital gain or loss (within the meaning of the Code) equal to the difference between the amount realized from the sale of the shares and the basis (the basis would be the purchase price plus the amount taxed as ordinary compensation income). If the participant held the shares for more than one year, the capital gain or loss would be a long-term gain or loss. The Company would not receive an income tax deduction upon either the grant or exercise of the option by the participant, but generally would receive a deduction equal to the ordinary compensation income required to be recognized by the participant as a result of the disposition if the shares are disposed of by the participant within two years of the beginning of the purchase period when the shares were acquired or within one year after the shares are purchased.

IMPORTANCE OF CONSULTING A TAX ADVISER. The information set forth above is a summary only and does not purport to be complete. In addition, the information is based upon current federal income tax rules and therefore is subject to change when those rules change. Moreover, because the tax consequences to any participant may depend on his or her particular situation, each participant should consult his or her tax adviser as to the Federal, state, local and other tax consequences of the acquisition or disposition of Common Stock under the Stock Purchase Plan.

(2) Not eligible to participate.

The Compensation Committee believes that shares granted under the Stock Purchase Plan have been and will be awarded to all employees presently meeting the existing eligibility requirements, except no one plan participant may be granted an aggregate number of shares with a fair market value exceeding $25,000 in one calendar year, as determined at the beginning of each purchase period as defined under the Stock Purchase Plan.
